 - i. Moved (Budelier/ Adkins) to approve the calendar.
 - ii. May be better to verify weekend dates towards the end of summer.
 - iii. The calendar has been flexible in the past.
 - iv. The Open House has yet to be determined.
 - v. It is important to get calendar posted as soon as possible on the website.
 - vi. The dates for Open House and summer windsurfing series can change.
 - vii. Have the Open House in April or May. What about a mass email to students in the summer?
 - viii. Motion to approve the calendar with flexible dates passed.

- III. New Business:
 - A. It's halfway to summer and time to start thinking about the summer transition.
 - B. We have new line. Talk to Daniel Rogge about it after the meeting.
 - C. The date for the CPR class has been changed to April 17th due to an issue with the cards. The class will be on Tuesday, April 17th in the IMU.
 - D. Waivers still need to be signed and returned.

- IV. Announcements:
 - A. The Hawkeye Invitational is this weekend! Volunteers are all signed up, but feel free to come out to help and watch. The team would love to see as many people out as possible. There are 8 other teams coming.
 - B. The team went to two regattas last weekend. Five new members went to Freshman Icebreaker at Notre Dame while six others went to Owens Community College for a team race. Results left something to be desired, but it was otherwise a great start to the season.
 - C. Albatross Nominations:
 - i. Daniel Rogge was nominated for trying to sail a laser without a centerboard.
 - ii. Jen Ellrich was nominated for realizing that the high side does not stay the high side during a tack.
 - iii. Matias Perret was nominated for leaving the tractor out in the rain overnight...with the keys in the ignition.
 - iv. Matias won by applause to keep his winning streak going for at least another week.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:57 pm.
